The Committee shall provide academic guidance to the scholar for the incorporation of the required revisions and shall subsequently issue a Correction Certificate upon satisfactory compliance with the suggested amendments. The scholar shall then submit the revised proposal, along with the Correction Certificate, to the Office of the Directorate of Advanced Studies (DAS) for consideration in the forthcoming meeting of the Advanced Studies & Research Board (ASRB).

The suggested corrections are as follows:

- i. The study's title should be revised for clarity (Both urdu and English), and to better convey the scope and objectives of the research.
- ii. A concise comprehensive summary of the study should be included as part of the proposal.
- iii. For completeness, the proposal should explicitly present the aim of the study.
- iv. The proposal should provide a well-structured tentative timeline within the plan of work to indicate the projected schedule of activities.
- v. It is essential that the proposal be prepared in full compliance with the University of Peshawar's approved Uniform Format for Proposal writing, available on the official website.
- vi. The research questions should be systematically presented immediately following the research objectives to maintain logical coherence.
