Principal's Message

The Jinnah College for Women, University of Peshawar is one of the foremost female colleges of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Its students take great pride in being associated with it for getting admission into this prestigious institution is a herculean task. Merit is its only criteria and this is reflected in the excellent results the College produces session after session. The College has grown over the last fifty years from a small University College of a few students and a small teaching and administrative staff into a tremendous institution of two thousand students and a staff of over a hundred. The credit goes to the former Principals and Staff whose dedication to the College has produced an institute the Province can be proud of.

Education at Jinnah not only means to impart book knowledge and to give intellectual instructions but it also means to develop the character of the student through a process of liberal education so that she develops into a well-rounded individual. For her the experience at Jinnah College for Women is an enlightening one so that in consequence she can become a better human being. Armed with this educational experience she can have better understanding of the world around her and is able to easily find her place in it. We at Jinnah would like to see the development of a more liberal environment where students are at liberty to freely express their ideas and thoughts. My Staff and I are endeavoring to develop at the College more open mindedness to new ideas so that it can lead to a broadening of minds.

My main aim and objective is to make the Jinnah College for Women a very strong institution so that it can stand the test of time and will over the years to come work for the benefit and progress of our nation. I want it to be a College where not only great emphasis is stressed upon a good academic record but also great importance is given to good conduct and behaviour. Jinnah College I hope will produce students who prove to be confident and successful in all walks of life.

I want Jinnah College's significance and importance in the promotion of female education realized and appreciated. As a parent, a teacher and a responsible citizen I believe that unanimously, over the years, the one desire that is seen growing among Pakistani girls is the desire to acquire an education. In a country where more than 61% of the population lives below the poverty line, female education takes a back seat. Furthermore, this gender disparity in education is growing into a major issue. I strongly believe we can make efforts to overcome this growing problem if we work diligently and selflessly towards the development of an institution that is not only progressive but also promotes a standardized education that will benefit not only our students, but also our society and our future generations.

The College was founded by the then Vice-Chancellor, Chaudhry Muhammad Ali (S.Pk) of the University of Peshawar in July 1964. Formerly called University College for Women, it was renamed Jinnah College for Women in 1976. To commemorate Muhammad Ali Jinnah's devotion and commitment to University of Peshawar, Jinnah College for Women was established from where the rays of light would radiate to Central Asia and go far beyond. It shares the motto of the University and has firm faith in the words:

رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا

Lord! Advance me in Knowledge

The College is located on the University Campus. The Tribal Hostel for Girls and a spacious playground flank it. It shares its hind wall with another female college, the College of Home Economics.

The academic building is a two-storied edifice consisting of classrooms, lecture theaters, laboratories, library, hall and an administration block. A new biology block was added in 2002 to the old building. The College has a number of lawns and a vast playground. The classrooms and lecture theaters are well kept, with heating arrangement for the winter. The laboratories are well equipped and cater the needs of conventional as well as emerging subjects. The library has four reading rooms, a good collection of up-to-date reference books and textbooks. Moreover, it has a fine collection of software on various subjects. The College hall, which was named Safia Hassan Hall, in recognition of the exemplary service rendered by the first Principal of the College has a seating capacity of 700 students and is the venue for the different functions held in the College. There is a well-equipped canteen for students. The vast playground attached to the College is used for inter-class, inter-college, university, provincial and national sports tournament.

The College offers ideal opportunities of Intermediate and Bachelor level education and B.S Studies Economics and Chemistry to the children of the employees of the University of Peshawar and other sister institutions on the Campus, as well as the deserving and meritorious young learners across the Province. Its aim is to produce enlightened and progressive young women capable of serving Islam and Pakistan. The College strives to give its students educational opportunities that would enable them to develop a positive and healthy attitude towards life and humanity. As a part of this education, maximum opportunities are provided for participation in co-curricular activities. These activities are promoted through different student societies that hold debates, dramatic and literary competitions, and other talent promoting events.

humanity. As a part of this education, maximum opportunities are provide for participation in co-curricular activities. These activities are promoted through different student societies that hold debates, dramatic and literary competitions, and other talent promoting events. Educational trips and study tours are also arranged The religious and moral training of the students is given due importance through fortnightly sermons, tutorials and celebration of religious festivals.
