VICE CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

It is a matter of pride and honour for me to welcome and share the pride of all the students of Jinnah College for Women (JCW) on becoming part of this prestigious institute. This institute being one of the best is the dream of many in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Since its inception in 1964, Jinnah College for Women has consistently provided to be a beacon for the feminine youth of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, enlightening generations. The education given at JCW extends far beyond mere academics, which is only one aspect thought, according to the set syllabi of BISE Peshawar/University of Peshawar. The personalities of students that enter the College are molded with knowledge, integrity, decency and honesty carving a spirit that proves indomitable in any profession they may choose to pursue. Females are future up bringers. It cannot be overstressed to conclude that students who are great academicians and have honesty, integrity and decency kneaded in their conscience will train future generations who will prove to be the pillars of any invincible society and community.

University of Peshawar has been a source of trends and inspiration for the knowledge loving people of this area for more than a century, and Jinnah College for Women, being a constituent College has really contributed laudable services in facilitating female students.

I do hope that the faculty will continue to maintain their professional zeal and certainly students will thrive, their best to be beneficial from conducive, academic, environment of Jinnah College for Women.

I am looking forward to your success so that you make a difference.

Prof. Dr. Muhammad Idrees
Vice Chancellor
University of Peshawar

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The Jinnah College for Women, University of Peshawar is one of the foremost female colleges of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Its students take great pride in being associated with it for getting admission into this prestigious institution is a herculean task. Merit is its only criteria and this is reflected in the excellent results the College produces session after session. The College has grown over the last fifty years from a small University College of a few students and a small teaching and administrative staff into a tremendous institution of two thousand students and a staff of over a hundred. The credit goes to the former Principals and Staff whose dedication to the College has produced an institute the Province can be proud of.

My main aim and objective is to make the Jinnah College for Women a very strong institution so that it can stand the test of time and will over the years to come work for the benefit and progress of our nation. I want it to be a College where not only great emphasis is stressed upon a good academic record but also great importance is given to good conduct and behavior. Jinnah College I hope will produce students who prove to be confident and successful in all walks of life.

Prof. Dr. Tazeen Gul
Principal
Jinnah College for Women
